The New Year is well and truly underway.

Children are returning to school, the holiday period generally has come to an end and activity has resumed in our construction and building industry as the growth across

Cockburn continues unabated in terms of residential, commercial, retail and Industry.

The construction of the Cockburn Central West Regional Aquatic & Recreation facility and the Fremantle Football Club's new administration and training facility is about 25% complete. Apartment-style living complexes continue to emerge within the Cockburn Central Town Centre and will eventually extend to the west and the north.

Construction has also commenced on the Police Hub at the northern end of the Cockburn Central Town Centre while a diverse and increasing mix of new cafes and restaurants offering cosmopolitan cuisines is available within the Town Centre and at Cockburn Gateways Shopping City.

Work is also progressing on the Cockburn Coast Redevelopment Area with the Shoreline Precinct the first to get underway. The public open space realm will be complemented with retail and commercial space, hospitality and activity hubs, a new school and community centre as part of the overall plan.

Port Coogee continues to develop with construction having commenced on the new shopping centre that will add to the 'sense of community' and convenience for those living in and visiting the locality.

I encourage members of the community to explore the wonderful social and recreational opportunities that are available in our City for all ages and abilities including those provided from the Seniors Centre, the Youth Centre, the South Lake Leisure Centre, our libraries at Spearwood, Coolbellup and Success, the Cockburn Wetlands Education Centre, Native ARC, the many walk and cycle paths across the City, and our wonderful beaches, parks, wetlands and bushland.

The Carnival of Events is unfolding with the Summer Nights Community Concerts, the Coogee Beach Festival, Hello Baby and the Harvest Hoo Haa coming your way as free events. The City's 2016 wall calendar distributed during December 2015 has pages packed with information on these and other events.

On behalf of the elected members, I trust that 2016 brings everyone the opportunity to enhance their personal and family wellbeing. I look forward to the input of our valued volunteers and the community as we continue to showcase all that Cockburn has to offer.

Fibreglass Fairy terns have been installed inside a temporary fence at Woodman Point to encourage real Fairy terns to nest!

Fairy terns like to nest in groups and it is hoped that the fake birds will attract real birds to the site.

The trial aims to assist in maintaining a healthy population of birds whose habitat is under threat due to increasing urban development and beach utilisation.

The City embarked on the innovative trial in November 2015 in conjunction with Perth NRM Coastcare, Department of Parks and Wildlife and the Department of Sport and Recreation Woodman Point.

The trial will continue until April 2016.

NEW EXERCISE EQUIPMENT

The warmer weather means more residents are out and about and it's now easier than ever to keep fit thanks to ongoing installation of public exercise equipment in the City's open spaces.

The most recent additions have been at Harmony Park, Cockburn Youth Centre and Atwell Oval with new equipment going in soon at Botany Park, Bakers Square, Radiata Park and Riverina Park.

The City's Public Open Space (POS) strategy has identified three to four sites per suburb that contain existing infrastructure and generally have a high participation rate, which would support the installation of exercise equipment.

The equipment program forms part of the City of Cockburn's Public Health Plan.

The Plan aims to provide functional, accessible and active public open spaces that encourage physical activity and create environments that facilitate education and training programs on active and healthy living.

Check out the tables below to see if there is already some equipment near you or will be soon!

The City of Cockburn will continue to provide a Financial Counselling Service direct to the community after securing State Government funding through a consortium. The City's Community Development and Services team worked hard to get ongoing funding for the service through a new model put in place through the Department of Local Government and Communities.

The service will continue to be funded into 2018 but, due to the reduced funding level compared to the previous years, there will be one financial counselling service for Cockburn residents instead of the previous two. The reduced funding also means the City will need to pay $8,000 per year to ensure the service operates full time.

The service will continue to provide high quality, integrated and locally accessible face to face financial counselling. Financial Counsellors assist residents with negotiating with utility companies, housing providers (both mortgage and rental), debt with credit cards and personal loans and assistance navigating financial hardship applications and bankruptcy.

The new partnership model will make the most out of the resources available through increased efficiency and improved coordination of services.

The consortium members are Anglicare, Uniting Care West, Midlas, Blue Sky Community Group, The Spiers Centre, City of Wanneroo, Anglicare WA, Gosnells Community Legal Centre, Southcare, and Mission Australia.

Cockburn residents can continue to contact the City of Cockburn directly at 9411 3444 to arrange face-to-face appointments and there will also be a new 1800 number established to direct people to their closest financial counsellor.

HELP US PROTECT OUR NATIVE ANIMALS

The City needs your help.

Millions of native animals around Australia are killed by domestic cats and dogs each year.

This is in addition to the foxes and feral cats that increasingly prey on native fauna.

The City is working hard to protect native animals through an active program of education and control, but is continually catching domestic cats in cage traps and dogs in soft leg traps designed for feral animals.

Do your bit by securing your dog on a lead in conservation reserves and in public areas, and by ensuring your cat sleeps at home at night.

Your actions will help to protect our beloved wildlife.

The City's Recreation Services Team manages the use of Cockburn's 25 active reserves, over 150 local parks and 12 community centres and public halls. They provide resources to over 140 local sporting clubs and run a number of annual events throughout the year including the Bibra Lake Fun Run that attracts up to 1,000 participants.

The Team also has a range of grants available to local residents and clubs that aim to keep our community active. These include:

KidSport Program – up to $200 for club fees

KidSport is a partnership between the Department of Sport and Recreation and local governments. It's a voucher scheme which gives eligible youth aged 5-18 years up to $200 a year towards their club fees. In 2014, more than 700 Cockburn children received grants through the KidSport program!

Cockburn is one of Australia's biggest growth areas requiring more roads infrastructure to keep up with the rapid rate of growth.

We have conducted numerous surveys with our residents and we know traffic congestion and safety is a major problem, costing people time and money. At the City of Cockburn, we are committed to addressing this issue through an on-going roads infrastructure program as detailed below.

ARMADALE ROAD – FINISH THE JOB, BUILD THE BRIDGE

We need $160M to build the bridge.

The Community Connect South (CCS) campaign is seeking $160M in government funding to finish the Armadale Road project.

The funds are required to construct a bridge and freeway interchange at North Lake Road to link it with Armadale Road. This will mean thousands of vehicles currently using the road each day will no longer be forced to go through Cockburn Central.

A bit of background

In September, CCS was successful in gaining a commitment of $116M from the Federal Government, along with $29M from the State, for the full duplication of Armadale Road (Anstey Road to Tapper Drive).

However, the CCS partnership between the City of Armadale and City of Cockburn is not over yet, as significant congestion will remain in Cockburn Central if the link and bridge are not built.

With the Federal election approaching in 2016, CCS still needs your support to ensure this second piece of vital infrastructure becomes an election issue.

Throughout 2016 the City will be pursuing all major political parties to make clear their support for this critical crossing point over the freeway.

The CCS mission is to reduce congestion which will enable higher productivity and employment opportunities through the connection of major hubs in an 'Enterprise Arc'.

This Arc goes from Armadale, through Forrestdale Business Parks, the future South Forrestdale Industrial area, Cockburn Central, Jandakot Airport and the Western Trade Coast to Fremantle.

What can I do?

Visit the CCS website at ccsouth.info to register for future updates and to find out what action you can take as the campaign gains momentum closer to the election.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE at 4pm on Thursday 31 March 2016.

New playground plans underway

Tortoises, dragonflies and water squirting bull rushes are just some of the fun elements planned for the City of Cockburn's new playground at Bibra Lake.

Council has approved the construction tender for the project with work expected to commence in February 2016 and be completed in September.

Apart from dozens of pieces of traditional playground equipment, the area will also feature giant sculptures by local artist Travis Tischler and water play.

The contractor has had possession of the site since early February to ensure the community had full access to Bibra Lake during the summer school holiday period.

More than 7,000 square metres of land has been set aside for not only the playground but also for additional park infrastructure including shelters, barbecues, drinking fountains and theme planting.

The site will be fully fenced with four entrances and the playground has been designed to integrate with the existing tree canopy. This will allow the natural shade to create a unique location and the playground will blend in with the surrounding bushland.

cockburn.wa.gov.au/parks

TEAM FOCUS - HENDERSON WASTE RECOVERY PARK

A team of 26 staff operate the City's Henderson Waste Recovery Park 362 days a year in a complex operation of waste recycling and disposal. The team includes:

- Commercial plant operators who look after the landfill cell, including waste disposal and recovery of items such as steel and wood
- Domestic operations staff who assist residents to correctly dispose of household waste at the transfer station
- Staff at the Recycle Shop who undertake minor repairs to items for sale as well as shop presentation and customer service
- Weighbridge staff who ensure that waste received meets compliance requirements set out by the Department of Environmental Regulation
- Administration and management staff who are involved in the day to day management and running of the site

This team is always busy making sure that they keep up-to-date with the constantly evolving waste industry.

Their hard work means that the 70,000 tonnes of waste they receive annually is disposed of in an environmentally responsible manner.

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) My Way trial gives the residents of Cockburn, Kwinana and the lower south west of WA the opportunity to have more control and choice over the types of services they require.

Thanks to the City's participation in the trial, Cockburn Community Care gives people with disabilities the opportunity to enjoy a range of activities in a safe and welcoming environment.

In addition to providing services to people with disabilities and respite to their families and carers, Cockburn Community Care works with My Way coordinators to ensure that each client receives the services they want.

Karen Olman's daughter Justine is intellectually disabled with cerebral palsy.

Cockburn Community Care is an important part of Justine's My Way support plan and gives her two days a week of socialising, community access and stimulating activity.

Justine loves being out and about, seeing things and being places. She's able to enjoy outings to places like the zoo and activities such as craft mornings.

Karen and her My Way coordinator worked out a plan that is tailored specifically for Justine, creating an environment and lifestyle for her so she can get the best quality of life.

Karen has piece of mind knowing that her daughter is being well looked after by the wonderful staff at the centre who provide all of Justine's basic needs.

South Lake, like many other suburbs east of Bibra Lake, was part of the Jandakot Agricultural Area (JAA). Parcels of land in the fertile, swampy district were offered for sale by the government in 1890 to encourage new farmers and market gardeners into the area to produce food for a rapidly growing colony.

To the south of them James Hicks, a Fremantle property developer, bought Lot 154 and called it Bodalla Estate, dividing it into 2 and 4-acre plots to sell on. Robert Semple had Lot 155 on his eastern border.

The area remained rural farmland for the next century, until in 1981 developers began to clear the northern end for suburban housing. One building company suggested the name South Lake, which was approved in August 1982. The Leisure Centre was completed in 1991, and the Kwinana Freeway was extended to Yangebup Rd (renamed Beeliar Drive) in 1992.

Bodalla Estate Jandakot

As early as 1887 settlers had been taking up land in the South Lake area. Brothers Thomas and Anham Briggs held JAA Lots 191 and 192, most of the land fronting onto Forrest Rd (now North Lake Rd). Their fruit and vegetable business became one of the best-known in the district and they went on to serve on the Fremantle Roads Board.

FUEL TO GO

Delicious healthy options are now available at the South Lake Leisure Centre canteen thanks to a partnership with the South Metropolitan Population Health Unit and WA School Canteen Association Inc, who have helped introduce the Healthway funded Fuel to Go project. Much of the greasy food has been replaced by the type of food the Australian Institute of Sport recommends to their athletes. The project aims to increase the healthy food and drink choices offered at sport, racing and recreation venues. The traffic light system is a simple way to rate foods.

CITY GAINS FUNDS FOR RECREATION FACILITY

The City of Cockburn has been successful in gaining $4.5M from the National Stronger Regions Fund (NSRF) towards the construction of a Bowling and Recreation Facility on Visko Park in Yangebup.

The $9.5M project will see the construction of a facility featuring synthetic greens for lawn bowls, fenced soccer pitches for five aside, and a sand area suitable for beach volleyball.

The building project is expected to begin in late 2016 with the Cockburn Bowling and Recreation Club to relocate to the Yangebup site from its 50 year old premises in Spearwood by late 2017.

The funding will allow the City to build an integrated facility for a range of different sports capable of hosting regional sporting events and functions.

East Ward

The State Government's plan to cut public transport is deplorable and will have a big impact on Cockburn residents.

While our population is growing we should be growing our public transport en-masse and, quite frankly, any other transport option, not shrinking it.

The City of Cockburn is growing on average by three families per day. That means potentially 3,000 additional commuting trips each year. This is why it is so commendable to the City of Cockburn for having been successful in securing the $145m in funding for the Armadale Road extension in partnership with the City of Armadale.

Once the newest star attraction of the City of Cockburn is completed in early 2017, there will be even more people travelling to and from the amazing Cockburn Central West development to watch the Dockers train and enjoy our world class leisure facilities!

We need to strategise and make sure we keep the Federal and State Governments accountable to their constituents in Cockburn to secure world class transport options for our fast growing City!

Central Ward

It's hard to believe that two years have passed since I had the privilege of being elected to the Central Ward.

During this period I have met many wonderful and inspiring residents.

I have also been a Justice of the Peace (JP) since 2010, so have signed and witnessed thousands of documents.

JPs have always been an integral part of the Cockburn Community. The office of the Justice of the Peace is an old institution going back to medieval times.

When Captain James Stirling founded the colony of Western Australia in 1892, he appointed eight JPs who formed the basis of the WA Court of Petty Sessions, which is now part of the Magistrates Court.

The City offers a free JP Service every Monday from 10am to 12.30pm at the Spearwood Library.

There are many JPs in Cockburn, so if you need to find one then please visit justice.wa.gov.au
